

Cattle network meeting

12 December 2022 at 10.00-16.00
AU Foulum, Blichers Alle 20, 8830 Tjele

Preliminary Program

9.30 – 10.00 Coffee and registration

10.00-12.30 Common Climate theme across core groups:

10.00-10.30 Potential impacts of alternative globalization and climate mitigation policy scenarios on animal food production: some preliminary results (Professor Wusheng Yu, KU SCIENCE)

10.30-11.00 Necessary adaptations of the Danish livestock population under different climate policy scenarios (Professor Uffe Jørgensen, AU)

11.00-11.20 Coffee break

11.20-11.50 From knowledge to effect – implementation and documentation of methane effect (Professor Peter Lund and senior researcher Troels Kristensen, AU)

11.50 -12.20 Panel discussion

12.20 -12.30 Pitch of core group meetings

12.30-13.30 Lunch

13.30-16.00 Core group meetings

Genetics improvement: Presentations on green plant agenda (Christian S. Jensen, DLF) and beef & dairy production (Assist. Prof Emre Karaman and postdoc Alban Bouquet, AU) followed by group work and discussions on new ideas and projects.

Feed supply and Nutrition: Project ideas, short presentations etc. as usual.

Cattle production systems, technology and management: Presentation on challenges with rules for cattle housing towards 2034 (Anja J. Freudendal and Vibeke Fladkjær Nielsen, SEGES, followed by discussions on research, innovation and collaboration.

Cattle health and biosecurity: Inspirational online presentation of a multiparameter health monitoring system for dairy cattle farms (Henriëtte Brouwer-Middelesch, GD Animal Health Service, Deventer, the Netherlands) followed by discussion of research ideas and collaboration opportunities.

The event is free but sign up is needed HERE.